The Belgian Parliament Debating the Reply to the Last German Note.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The Jefferson Borden Mutineers.

LONDON, May 7.—The mutineers of the crew of the schooner Jefferson Borden are still alive. The English sailor is in the worst condition. He has signed a paper stating that he acted with the mutineers under compulsion. The United States Consul has taken charge of the prisoners and ordered their transfer to the Dreadnaught Hospital.

Discussing the Budget.

LONDON, May 8—1 A. M.—In the House of Commons last night, in the discussion of the budget Gladstone censured the method of stating the Treasury accounts, whereby, he said, deficiencies were concealed. He pointed out that the expenditures had increased during the year of Conservative government £1,360,000. He contended that counting interest on loans, interest on deficiency, the savings bank and friendly society's accounts, which are not mentioned in the budget, the Irish educational charge, &c., no surplus existed.

No Prospect of Reducing the Public Debt.

Gladstone also contended that the proposal for reducing the public debt is totally unreal and visionary; that an experience of thirty years has showed that the debt has been increased by fresh loans more than it had been reduced by surpluses. Yet Sir Stafford Northcote had anticipated that the surpluses during the next thirty years would amount to £18,000,000.

Gladstone said that a party priding itself on its veneration for the traditions of its past ought not to delude the country from the safe road in finance.

Reply to Gladstone.

Sir Stafford Northcote, in reply to Gladstone, conceded that the figures of the budget might be so taken as to show a deficiency, but said that the system he had adopted was one of many years' standing. He declared that the interest on loans had been fully considered in his estimates, and that no vote on account of savings banks was necessary for the present year. Doubtless supplementary estimates might more than absorb the surplus, but if he anticipated additional charges, he had a full right to anticipate that the addition will be balanced by other items of revenue. He said Gladstone had himself formerly approved the system of a reduction of the debt by a fixed appropriation.

GERMANY.

Preparing to Emigrate.

BERLIN, May 7.—Six thousand German families are preparing to emigrate from Prussia on account of the conscription.

The War on the Catholics.

BERLIN, May 7.—The proceedings against the Prince Bishop of Breslau for violation of the ecclesiastical laws resulted in his removal. He has been conducted to the Bohemian frontier.

Bismarck Still Dissatisfied.

The Post considers the reply of the Belgian Government to the last German note unsatisfactory, and believes that Germany is placed in such a position that to let the matter rest will be an impossibility.

Suppression of Religious Orders.

BERLIN, May 7.—In the Lower House of the Prussian Diet to-day, the bill for the suppression of religious orders had its first reading.

More Plots Against Bismarck's Life.

LONDON, May 8.—The Standard's special from Berlin says the Prussian police have redoubled their vigilance, having received alarming notices of plots against Prince Bismarck and Minister Falk. A special staff of fourteen detectives has been formed for their protection.

BELGIUM.

Debating the Reply to Germany's Last Note.

BRUSSELS, May 7.—The Belgian Chamber of Representatives to-day debated M. D'Aspremonte Lynden's reply to Germany's last note.

M. Frere Orban was the principal speaker. He approved the terms of the last answer to Germany. He considered that all grounds for apprehension respecting the independence of the country, the integrity of its institutions and the liberty of the press, had disappeared. At the same time the neutral position of Belgium did not exonerate her from her obligations to her neighbors. It was a question whether the Government had done its duty to Germany in the Duchesne affair.

The Minister of Justice denied that the Government had been inactive in prosecuting the investigation.

MEXICO.

The Revolution in Michoacan Spreading.

CITY OF MEXICO, April 30.—The revolution which commenced in Michoacan in consequence of the publication of church reforms and of the expulsion of Sisters of Charity is extending and gaining ground in other States. Michoacan is suffering greatly. All business is paralyzed and the inhabitants are leaving. The village of Jucuba has been pillaged and burned. The Legislature of Michoacan, alarmed at the progress of the revolution, has been convoked in extra session, which commenced on the 23d inst. It will discuss measures for the extinguishment of the rebels.

WEST INDIES.

The Jamaica Revolution.

NEW YORK, May 7.—A dispatch from Port au Prince, May 3d, says: The revolution was, at the first moment subsequent to the outbreak, put down by the Government troops. Generals Price, Bryce and Pierre were killed, and the foreign Consulates were immediately crowded with refugees, who sought shelter from the violence of the native mob. Martial law was proclaimed, the proclamation containing a promise of amnesty to those who would surrender at once to the officers of the Government, and tranquillity has been restored.

FRANCE.

The War Cloud.

PARIS, May 7.—Some of the French journals treat the reports of the alarmists about war with Germany as unfounded, and others consider them greatly exaggerated. All are confident that the Czar is in favor of peace.

CHINA.

Outrage on Americans.

SHANGHAI, May 7.—The American Methodist chapel at Quickang was destroyed by a mob of Chinamen. The Chinese authorities have offered ample reparation for the outrage.

CENTRAL AMERICA.

The Darien Expedition.

COLON, CENTRAL AMERICA, May 7.—The United States steamship Canandaigua, with the Darien expedition, arrived here. All are well on board. The expedition was successful.

POLITICAL.

Kentucky Democratic State Convention.

LOUISVILLE, May 7.—The Kentucky Democratic State Convention adjourned this afternoon, after nominating John C. Underwood, of Bowling Green, for Lieutenant Governor; Thomas E. Moss, of Paducah, for Attorney General; D. Howard Smith, for Auditor, and J. W. Tate for Treasurer. The following report of the Committee on Resolutions was unanimously adopted:

We hold it to be absolutely essential to the preservation of the liberties of the citizens that the several States shall be maintained in all their rights, dignity and equality as the most complete and reliable administration of our domestic concerns, and the surest bulwarks against anti-republican tendencies. Every attempt on the part of the Federal Government to exercise a power not delegated to it in the Constitution, or to exercise a delegated power in a manner not therein prescribed, is an act of usurpation demanding the instant and unqualified condemnation of a people jealous of their liberties, and we hold that any unconstitutional interference by the General Government with the local affairs of any State, to any extent, on any pretense whatever, should be at once repudiated and condemned by all classes of every section of the Union, as all such acts tend directly to the destruction of our Federal system, and consolidation of all power in a centralized despotism.

A notable feature of the Convention was the active participation of the venerable Cassius M. Clay, who pledged himself to canvass the State for the Democratic ticket.

American Medical Association.

LOUISVILLE, May 7.—The American Medical Association met at the usual hour. A resolution requesting the Chief Signal Officer to make daily reports of the amount of ozone in the atmosphere was read and adopted. After appointing committees, and the delivery of the farewell address, the Association adjourned to meet in Philadelphia on the first Tuesday of June, 1876.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, May 7, 1875.

The Beecher Trial.

A dense crowd of spectators was in the Brooklyn City Court room this morning. The attendance of women was largely in excess of the previous days. Mr. Beecher and wife were in Court before the proceedings opened, which were delayed by the late arrival of some of the counsel.

After the formal opening, Mr. Evarts said that Mr. Beach and Mr. Shearman were compelled to be absent, and as the case was now reaching the close, the difference of an adjournment for a day or so would not matter very much. He suggested, therefore, that the Court should adjourn for the day. Judge Neilson entertained the suggestion and the Court adjourned over until Monday next.

The Brooklyn Eagle, in speaking of the probable duration of the Beecher trial, says the testimony yet to be introduced in behalf of the plaintiff will, it is expected, be all in by Tuesday night, and then the remainder of the week will be taken up by the counsel for the defendant in placing their last testimony before the jury. Ex-Judge Porter will commence his address on Monday, the 16th inst., and will take the whole of that week in presenting his view of the case on behalf of the defendant. The address of Mr. Evarts, which will be commenced on Monday, the 23d inst., will probably occupy the remainder of the month and run over into June, and if nothing unforeseen takes place, the whole of the summing up, including the address by Mr. Beach on behalf of the plaintiff, will be finished by the end of the first week in the next month. Mr. Beach does not expect to take more than three days in presenting the plaintiff's side of the case to the jury. Then will follow the charge by Judge Neilson, and deliberation by the jury, and the verdict may be looked for about the middle of next month.

JEFFERSONVILLE.

Bill Rodifer Makes Another Attempt to Escape from the Penitentiary—Again Under Lock and Key.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., May 7.—Bill Rodifer, one of the most noted convicts in America, made another daring attempt to escape again from the penitentiary, with three other prisoners. At one o'clock this afternoon one of the guards heard a noise as if some one was using a heavy implement on the walls of a cell. On making an examination he was suddenly confronted by the prisoner, armed with a revolver. The guard retreated for help, and further examination proved that Rodifer in some mysterious manner secured keys, unlocked the cell doors, and silently seized the inside guard, disarmed him and threw him into a cell, locking him in, and then made an attempt to knock a hole in the wall large enough to escape. The noise he made frustrated his attempt. He is again locked in his cell.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

THE steel works at Martin's Ferry are idle.

ALL four blast furnaces at West Middlesex, Mercer county, are cold.

OF THE 157 blast furnaces in Scotland 119 were blowing on the 9th of April and 38 were out.

All the coal mines at Mineral Ridge have suspended operations, while there is but one furnace in blast.

THE Fanny furnace, at West Middlesex, Mercer county, is being adapted to use coke instead of block coal.

THE puddlers are working double turn at all the mills in Mercer county, orders for merchant iron and nails being plenty.

THE assignees of James Ward & Co., at Niles, will sell on the 28th of May, the Falcon rolling mill and other property, of an appraised value exceeding $100,000.

ON account of a lack of puddled iron, work has been suspended at Corning's mill, Troy, N. Y. The heaters' helpers have made a demand for $2.00 instead of $1.75 per day.

THE Greenville Iron Company's mill is running double turn, and is yet somewhat behind in filling orders. This mill has been in successful operation all through the depression since the panic.

THE Beaver Valley News says it is rumored that the glass works of Beaver Falls will be put in operation soon. If this should be true, it will be another step forward on the part of the town. With the starting of the hinge factory, every industrial establishment in the place should be set to work.

THE iron manufactories of Erie employ $1,349,000 capital, 965 men and produce annually $3,628,000. Brass foundries—capital, $310,000, men, 189, annual product, $440,000. Stove foundries—capital, $375,000, men employed, 190, annual product, $475,000. Car manufactories—capital, $260,000, men employed, 625, annual product, $600,000.

Review of the Statistics of the Shipment of Petroleum.

To the Editors of the Pittsburgh Gazette:

Let us review the statistics of the shipment of petroleum. From January first to date we have received by rail about 114,000 barrels. By river 190,000 more. The former at a rate of freight of 35 cents per barrel and the latter at 12 1-2 cents per barrel, and as long as barges were running refiners could make a reasonable margin by shipping on the B. & O. Railroad, whereas parties that have brought their oil by rail have not been able to make a margin, which can be proven by the amount shipped in the shape of refined oil. The shipments on the P. & R. road have been twenty-nine thousand from Jan. 18th to April 17th, and on the B. & O. road between 125,000 and 150,000 barrels.

Now the pipe lines have formed a combination to make all parties ship by rail, and refuse to load any more barges for any one, and to control the trade to suit themselves, and there ends. As soon as this is done they will dictate to the producer who he shall sell to; and if he don't sell to whom they want, or appoint as buyer, will refuse to pump their oils. They have forced producers to sell to them for a less price than they could have got had they given them the regular certificate they issue. The whole thing amounts to this: that they have formed a grand combination with the railroads, and intend to put up and down prices to suit them, and to ruin the masses in the trade, and the sooner we have free pipe bills, and these rings broken up, the better for the people, for they are the ruination of any country. It is for the masses to break up these combinations and see that all are on the same footing in the trade. The Standard of Cleveland, to-day are the main movers and are doing all they can from having Pittsburgh make any more oil than they will allow them, and Pittsburgh to-day, with a free pipe law and free barge shipment, can make oil lower and ship it to the seaboard for considerable less than the Standard can from Cleveland, and the sooner Pittsburgh opens her eyes and takes care of her own interest the sooner she will make money.

PRODUCER.

Murder in Jefferson County.

The little town of Reynoldsville, Jefferson county, is the latest scene of a tragedy. One G. W. Spencer is in custody there on the charge of killing a Prussian named Brunner. It appears that Spencer struck Brunner on the head with a heavy poker at the St. Charles Hotel in that town some six weeks ago, knocking him insensible, in which state he remained several hours, but that he finally so far recovered as to be able to attend to his work again, and that nothing serious was apprehended until week before last, when he complained of severe pain in his head, which increased and finally resulted in insanity and death, the latter taking place on Sunday, the 11th inst. A coroner's inquest was held, and the facts developed according with the above statements. A warrant was issued for the apprehension of Spencer, and Constable E. Neff made the arrest at Big Run, on Friday morning, conducting the prisoner to Reynoldsville, where he was taken in charge by Sheriff Barr.

SECOND EDITION

THE MINERS' WAR.

Great Excitement at Kingston.

A Reign of Terror Inaugurated.

WILKESBARRE, PA., May 7.—Last night was an exciting one in the region around Kingston. A procession of from fifty to one hundred miners, with torches and armed with guns, revolvers and clubs, marched to the dwellings of men who are working in Hutchinson's and Payne's mines, and gave them notice to quit work or the penalty would be death. The result has been that Payne's men refused to return to work this morning. Three of Hutchinson's men, while on their way to the shaft, were followed by a gang of women and children and pelted with stones until they were forced to seek safety in flight.

A constable into whose hands warrants for the arrest of the persons who beat McDabe were placed was unable to serve them to-day. To-morrow a posse will accompany him, and serious trouble is expected.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, May 6.—Later advices from Port au Prince are to the effect that the attempted revolution was discovered during the national festival on Saturday last while the President was at church. Government troops proceeded at once to arrest Bryce, Monplassir, Pierre and Canal, aspirants for the Presidency. Each of them resisted and fought furiously. Bryce was wounded and died at the English Consulate. Pierre committed suicide, and Canal sought the shelter of the American Consulate. Order was restored on Monday. Arrests of implicated parties still continue. Two foreigners were accidentally killed during the outbreak.

RELIGIOUS.

Southern Baptist Convention.

CHARLESTON, S. C., May 7.—The Southern Baptist Convention to-day engaged in discussing the movement of the American Baptist Educational Commission. This was heartily endorsed by the convention. Several eloquent and able speeches were made. Dr. Cutting, of New York, Secretary of the Commission, explained the purpose of the work. The Baptists were a century ago actively engaged in the interest of religious liberty for this cause as much as for civil liberty. They joined heartily in the revolutionary war. They propose to celebrate in 1876 the Centennial of their labors in gratitude to God for the great success of their principles, and also for their large increase of members in this country. One hundred years ago they numbered about 15,000. They now have about 1,700,000 members. The centennial is to be celebrated by raising several millions of dollars in aid of their several institutions of learning.

Dr. Curry, of Virginia, followed Dr. Cutting in an exceedingly eloquent and effective speech. The enthusiasm was so great that the chair had constantly to suppress the applause which broke forth in the body. Dr. Winkler, of Alabama, and Dr. Broadus, of South Carolina, also spoke with great earnestness and effect. Scarcely any other business was transacted.

In the afternoon several members of the convention made a complimentary call in a body upon Chief Justice Waite, of the Supreme Court, who is now holding Court in this city.

The committee on the place of the next meeting will report in favor of Richmond.

The trustees of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary had a meeting to-day. They ordered the work of endowing the institution previous to its location at Louisville, Ky., to be prosecuted vigorously. Dr. Boyce was requested to continue to act in this work. It is to be pressed through within the coming eighteen months.

The convention appointed a committee to nominate messengers to the American Baptist Home Mission Society, which meets in Philadelphia on May 26th. In the absence of the person appointed, the Convention sermon was preached on Thursday night by Rev. Dr. Thomas H. Prichard, of Raleigh, N. C.

A mass meeting for Foreign Missions was held to-night, which was addressed by Rev. Dr. R. Fuller, of Maryland, and Dr. J. T. Tichenor, of Alabama.

A Triple Murderer Hanged—The Modern Instrument of Death Used.

PLYMOUTH, May 7.—Wm. E. Startevant, the triple murderer, was hanged this morning in the yard of the county jail. To the last he maintained the stolidity which has characterized him throughout. For the first time in this State the old drop scaffold was discarded for the more modern instrument of death—the cross-beam and weights. The sheriffs of the different counties of the State were present to witness the workings of the new scaffold.

Vessels in the Ice.

FARTHER POINT, May 7.—The steamer Dominion has arrived. The Captain reports having been caught in the ice eleven days. He saw and left the Polynesian and Lake Champlain, also one of Allen's ships, yesterday morning, the former far in the ice and the latter clear. The Polynesian appeared to be all right. Altogether he passed eight vessels in the ice, which was very heavy.

AMUSEMENTS.

Pittsburgh Opera House.

"St. Slocum" has its last two presentations to-day. It is a good frontier play, has drawn well all week, and will wind up this afternoon and to-night with eclat.

Owing to the illness of Miss Effie Ellsler, who is seriously sick at her home in Cleveland, with scarlet fever, she will be unable to appear at her brother's benefit next week.

On Monday evening the Opera House ushers, Charley and Lew Garber, take a benefit. They should have a good house.

Library Hall.

The entertainment given in Library Hall last evening by Clinton Lloyd, Esq., of Washington city, was attended by an appreciative audience, and proved very enjoyable. The programme embraced some selections calculated to bring out the full capacity of a good elocutionist, and Mr. Lloyd acquitted himself in a creditable manner, fully sustaining the reputation he has gained elsewhere.

Arthur Palmer's Benefit.

The scenic efforts of Mr. Arthur Palmer have added materially to many of the plays which have been produced at the Opera House this season and his worth and merit should be recognized by a good house next Wednesday night on the occasion of his benefit.

The Museum.

The Centennial Museum was opened last night and attracted a good attendance. The display of relics is large and varied, and an hour may be spent at the Museum very pleasantly. It will be open to-day from two o'clock.

Library Hall.

Nearly all the seats are sold for the complimentary benefit to be tendered Mr. Henry E. Abuey on Monday evening next, at Library Hall, and at which Edwin Adams, Lotta and E. A. Locke will appear in two good comedies.

Trimble's Varieties.

The burlesque features of the nightly entertainments at this theatre are very amusing and enjoyable. Minnie Rainforth, a sprightly singer, the Praeger family, Snow Brothers and others add to the interest of the programme.

Prof. O. S. Fowler.

The first lecture of this well known phrenologist will be delivered on Monday evening at Lafayette Hall, and the second on Wednesday evening. The Professor can be consulted daily at the Monongahela House.

Musical and Dramatic Notes.

BARTLEY CAMPBELL has gone to San Francisco, and will superintend the performance of his own pieces by Hooley's company.

MRS. ROUSBY has paid off and discharged her traveling company, and will henceforth play only in theatres were there are stock companies.

MME. NILSSON has entirely recovered her health, and writes to her friends in America that they need have no more uneasiness on her account.

MISS NEILSON on the conclusion of her engagement at Booth's, will take a long rest. It is her intention to retire from the stage for eighteen months or two years.

C. D. HESS is now the chief representative of English opera in this country. After organizing the Parepa company he formed the Kellogg troupe, and likely he will join hands with Carl Rosa next season.

MRS. DAN BRYANT was, according to Jennie June, a leader of fashion, wore dresses costing thousands of dollars, and entertained her friends at the Maison Doree with dinners of equal value.

MR. F. S. CHANFRAU and C. W. Tayleure have, under a liberal arrangement with its owners, become lessees of the Variety Theatre, New Orleans, and propose to make it the standard theatre of the South.

THE Washington Star says: "Between the women of New York who run after handsome actors, and the women of Brooklyn who run after popular preachers, it is hard to say which lot are the biggest idiots.

CHARLES BACKUS, the San Francisco Broadway minstrel, is a great nephew of Gerrit Smith, who did so much for the negro that Backus wanted to be on the right side and blackened his face. Backus hails from Rochester.

EDWIN BOOTH was recently offered by John McCullough $5,000 a week for four weeks at the California theatre. Booth preferred half the gross receipts. "There," said McCullough, "do you think Kean or Macready ever refused an offer like that?"

LOTTA, the actress, is small, pretty, has $300,000 in her own name, and can earn $250 per night on the stage, yet that mother of her's kinder takes a fellow's breath away when she puts on her bonnet and shawl and says: "Oh, yes, we will be delighted to take a ride."

THE youth of New York are now revenging themselves upon the feminine idiots of the city by a super-insane adoration of Neilson. If, according to the girls, Montague was "too lovely for anything," and Rignold "splendid," "sweet" and delightful, Neilson is now "divine" and all that the superior brilliancy of the masculine imagination can discover.

ACTORS, like authors, do not seem to make large fortunes. Mrs. Bryant, widow of the late Dan Bryant, has applied to Surrogate Hutchings for letters of administration upon her husband's estate. She sets forth in her petition that the property left behind does not exceed $200 in value, and there are five children to be supported. It is thought that the benefits given on Thursday in New York will realize $20,000.

A MEMORIAL theater, in honor of Shakespeare, is proposed in his native town of Stratford-on-Avon. The amount required is $25,000, and already $15,000 has been raised. Two acres of ground have been presented for the site, and it is thought that the work can be begun within a year. It is intended ultimately, if the funds will allow to establish a dramatic training school and college in connection with the theater.

NEW DRESS GOODS.

Hugus & Hacke

have now open their last week's purchases of Dress Goods in all the popular fabrics, comprising the latest novelties in Plain and Plaid Camel's Hair, and a superb assortment of De-Beges in Plain, Striped and Plaid. Also an unlimited supply of other desirable fabrics. Alpacas, Mohairs, Brilliantines, Challies, Cashmeres and Mourning Goods of every description.

Fifth avenue and Market street.

Let Us Have Peace.

In order to effect this desirable result, all must be of one mind, and on one subject. We find that all are agreed, viz: That Wm. Martin of 108 Federal street, Allegheny, sells the best Boots and Shoes on either side, or between the two rivers. Excellence of material, durability of workmanship and comfort in the wear, are positive qualities of the Boots and Shoes to be had of Wm. Martin. He sells no inferior and trashy goods, as he prefers a meek and quiet conscience to great wordly gain, and in his work follows closely the principle that "honesty is the best policy."

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 115⅛.

THE military conscription in Prussia has become so rigid that six thousand families propose to emigrate, to evade it.

THE upheaval called an insurrection was suddenly suppressed in Port au Prince. The troops promptly overcame the insurgents, and the Government thereupon offered amnesty to the revolutionists, and the affair was settled. Short affair for so much noise.

IT doesn't always, or even generally, pay to play the scamp. A former conductor on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad started in as a robber, bestowing his first efforts on an express car, and met his death rather than success in his undertaking.

COMMISSIONER DOUGLASS reports that he has no knowledge of another office being in reserve for him. His sudden decapitation illustrates the uncertain tenure of official life at Washington. A man may feel himself agreeably settled, yet suddenly he is cut off, without warning, and for no assignable reason. It was thus with Douglass.

ADVICES from the fruit regions of New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland give a most promising prospect for an unsurpassed yeld of peaches this season. The continuous cold weather of the past month has been rather favorable than otherwise in retarding the growth of the bud in those States until danger from frost is greatly lessened. Indications, however, point to a later season than usual.

THE investigation into the election of Senator Spencer, in Alabama, has brought to light the fact that in at least one instance a case of Ku-Klux outrage was manufactured. A man testified that he fired a pistol shot through his own hat, and then had the military called out to arrest the assassin. The only trouble in the story is that a man who would do this would also lie. Whether he acted the lie then, or tells it now, is the question.

IT seems very probable that we will have silver, in place of fractional currency, in a short time. The United States Treasury has about $6,000,000 in silver, and will, it is said, have $10,000,000 by September, with which sum Secretary Bristow thinks he can begin. This will be equal to about twenty-five per cent. of the amount of currency now out, and indicates that the resumption will be quite gradual. It will give an inspiration toward gold payments, when once we see silver currency generally circulated.

RUMOR often takes strange freaks and turns. A poor woman who was employed in the New York Court House was discharged, whereupon the report was started that her husband was once wealthy, and that she lived in affluence, but that he failed and died. All this was true; but the story grew, until he was stated to have become impoverished in furnishing marble for Stewart's Fifth avenue house; and that he fell dead in Stewart's presence after vainly importuning him for aid. It is the old story of the Welsh rarebit amplified. A man who had eaten it was reported to have eaten a rabbit, then a puss-hare, and finally three black cats at one sitting.

THE case of the Democratic party, as against the people, seems to make very slow headway. Mr. Magee's demand for a mandamus was argued before the Court yesterday, and decision reserved. The case is really but in its incipiency. It only goes so far as to involve the swearing in of Mr. Magee by Councils, after which the main issue is still to be considered. The present case turns simply on the credentials of Mr. Magee, which only form a prima facie case. If the Court determines in favor of Mr. Magee, the mandamus will only involve the swearing in of that gentleman. After that will come the tougher question whether he is really entitled to the office. We think he is not; but in any event, the progress thus far made being considered, we judge a conclusion will be reached in two or three years.

THE interest of Garibaldi in the plans for making a port of Rome, is increasing, and involves a vast amount of work. Prince Torlonia, who is celebrated as an engineer, will aid him, and Victor Emanuel will assist from his private purse. The Municipal Council of Rome is engaged in erecting healthful dwellings, in place of the rookeries inhabited by the poor in the lower part of the city; and this done, it will also afford aid. Thus a combination of favorable influences is had, and work is actively progressing. At Napau Lake, Prince Torlonia has charge of the work, while Garibaldi limits his efforts to the immediate neighborhood of the city, and building a great dyke at Fuimicino. When the vast work that is being mapped out is completed, Rome will be worthy her position as the capital of regenerated Italy.

JUDGE KELLY's penitence over his Force bill vote, we are happy to say, continues. His seems to be repentance that needs not to be repented of. He glories in it, indeed. That Force bill vote, of all the terrible things he did in his life, most occupies conscience and soul. True, it did not amount to anything, as the bill did not pass; but he mourns over the sin that might have worked such terrible injury with a sorrow equal to that of Beecher over the bad advice he gave to Bowen. Really the Judge is too sensitive. He has even exhumed a long-forgotten speech of his, telling Northern people how they ought to trust the South with ploughs and horses, and even horned cattle, in order that they may recover prosperity. This windy evidence of penitence he sends South. Surely, brethren beloved, you will forgive him.

THE prevalence of libel suits against newspapers, at the present time, is quite remarkable. The London Athenæum, Chicago Times, Springfield Republican, and other journals are involved. The noticeable feature of these suits is, that while they establish no precedent as to the freedom of the press, they result in little advantage to the prosecutors. Ten such suits fail where one succeeds. Where success attends them, they profit the prosecutors little. Suit for $200,000 was begun against the Republican, and the man received $100. It makes it evident that there must be clear evidence of malice to secure a verdict. It seems to be imagined, at times, that the easiest thing in the world is the gaining of damages by suit against papers,—the value of injured characters being, in most cases, rated extravagantly high. The trouble usually is, that a jury, after it has heard the evidence, does not conclude that the characters claimed to be damaged are worth so much as the owner estimates them at; and further, the exact damage suffered must, of necessity, be proven. It is amusing, however, to see how readily some persons catch at newspaper articles, and base actions upon them, when no such action was at all necessary. The difference between blackmail and an honest action is, however, generally understood.

THE French Republic is soon to undergo the ordeal of an election, and much solicitude is felt for the result. It involves the new body, the Senate, as well as the popular legislative body. The new Senate is to consist of 300 members, of whom 225 will be elected by the departments and 75 by the National Assembly. The former are to elect Senators in some proportion to their importance. The Departments of the Seine and the Nord elect five Senators each; the Seine-Inferieure, Gironde, Pas-de-Calais, and three others, four each; a still larger group of somewhat less populous departments elect three each; and the rest two. The District of Belfort, the three Departments of Algeria, and the four colonies of Martinique, Guadeloupe, Reunion, and the French Indies, will have one representative each. The choice is to be made by an electoral college, consisting of deputies, councils-general, district councils, and delegates elected by each municipality in France from the members of the Commune. The Senate is thus to constitute a representative body of the whole Republic elected by the municipalities and by the Chamber. The Senators elected by the Chamber are to be voted for, like the 750 representatives of the Chamber themselves, by a vote on the whole ticket; every elector having as many votes as there are members to be elected, but not being able to give more than one vote to one person. The anxiety turns on the uncertainty as to the result. There is a very unhappy political feeling, owing to the attempt on the part of the Legislatif to limit the ballot. Elections in France have so often been the occasion for infringing on the liberties of the people, that they are looked forward to with much nervousness of feeling. The issue of that to occur will be important to the people.

THE CONSULTATION.

The action taken by the Republicans of Allegheny relative to the selection of delegates to the Lancaster Convention, whether as regards energy, temperateness of discussion, or manifest interest in the welfare of the Republican party, can only be commended. We are particularly gratified that Mr. Fulton, Chairman of the County Executive Committee, was present, and at the spirit he displayed. His remarks were kindly, considerate, and good, and exerted a beneficial influence. It may be said that all the speakers manifested the most devoted loyalty to the party, yet insisted that the action of the Committee, so far as it applies to Allegheny, shall be changed. The delegates from that side did not, as a whole, meet the views of those present; but this was not so seriously considered as the manner in which they were chosen. Were those gentlemen to resign, they might possibly have a chance of being elected; but if not, it is very evident that primaries will be called, and another, and different set of delegates selected. Such delegates will necessarily be admitted to the State Convention, in preference to the others,—as to refuse to do this would drive the Republicans of Allegheny into hostility to the State ticket. It is this condition of things the County Committee is called upon to consider.

The County Executive Committee of this county have selected delegates to the coming State Convention,—and in so doing usurped a doubtful authority, and so palpably misused it that the Allegheny Republicans do not propose to abide the decision. We agree with the party on this subject. The suggestion has been thrown out, whether objecting to this, we will support the State ticket to be nominated. Of course we will; but this has nothing whatever to do with what has been so unwisely done. We do not know that could we have the selection of the delegates for this county to the State Convention absolutely committed to us, it would make the slightest difference as to the nominations to be made by that Convention. This is not involved. The real trouble is, that the County Committee has usurped the rights of the people, and in doing so did not, as a whole, give us such a delegation as we had the right to expect. It matters not who the delegates may be willing to vote for, so far as this particular action is concerned. The wrong exists just the same. Were President Grant to usurp the Presidential office, at the end of his term, without reference to the people, would the fact that he might administer the office with perfect fidelity be taken into account, as against the usurpation? So in this case. The trouble is what was done was wrong,—and it is no answer to say that the results will be all right. But our saying this does not involve opposition on our part to the ticket that may be nominated.

While this is true, however, another thing is equally true. There are many Republicans, who have been staunch in their devotion to the party, and who still accept its principles and prefer to vote for its candidates, who will deliberately vote against them, until the despotic measures of which they complain are put aside, and the voice of the party heard and accepted as to its policy and candidates. There is no wisdom in shutting our eyes to this fact. Nor can the purposes thus formed be changed by abuse, or sarcasm. We have yet to find the person who regrets that he voted against us last Fall. The general remark is, not only that they deliberately did it, but will do it again, if it shall seem necessary. And when the independent rank and file reach this frame of mind, it is a question whether it is not time for the leaders to pause to know just what they want? Yet all this disaffected element can be pleased so easily, that it seems a crime that they should not be. They do not ask that particular individuals shall be chosen, or candidates selected. Their demand is, that the selections even for delegates to the State Convention shall be rightly made, and that they shall be fairly representatives of the party. And so long as this reasonable request is not complied with, so long will there be trouble. The danger is, that those who would be our friends may be educated to vote against us, permanently.

The GAZETTE, therefore, wants the party, as to candidates, delegates, methods of making nominations, and all else that pertains to preliminary operations, to be right. For this it proposes openly and positively to speak, as occasion may require. It will even go so far, when errors are made to point them out, and reprehend them. In doing all this, it claims to be only in the line of duty. Its obligations are to the Republican party at large. But, when nominations are finally made, and the direct canvass irrevocably fixed, it is loyal, above all else, to the principles and tenets of the Republican party, and can never be induced to lend aid and comfort to the Democracy. In all this, it does not stultify itself, nor is it in any particular inconsistent. In brief, its policy is, to secure for its party, in all the preliminary movements within the organization, the best policy and candidates possible. This is a duty distinct and by itself. In the end, whether we succeed or fail, we support the party, believing it, in the main, to be the best. But while we thus act, there are those who have not the same views that we have, and there are enough of them in this county to defeat the party. If this is not believed, let the high handed measures inaugurated be carried through, and we will see.

Thus it is, that this matter, that is regarded as trivial, is really so gravely important. We do not suppose that it will make the slightest difference as to the nominations to be made, who the delegates from this county are. With the light we now have, we know Governor Hartranft will be renominated, and think that Mayor Rawle, of Erie, will be made the candidate of the party for State Treasurer. Whether it be him, or Col. Stewart, Mr. Wallace, or Mr. Wilson, we have no difficulty whatever in supporting them. Nor will our delegates make the slightest difference on this point. The majority of those selected will probably vote, conscientiously, for the best men. The trouble is, there has been a growing ill-feeling as to party management in this county, which last year caused a party defeat. It was a protest against what had been done. The feeling that caused it is not allayed,—nor yet is it unreasonable. It demands that, even if the results are the same, they shall be reached through the proper consideration of the rights of the rank and file of the party. It seems a little thing, but it embodies an important principle. It is certainly a small thing to the party managers whether they yield to it. If they do, they lose nothing; but if they do not, Allegheny county Republicans hold the fate of the State ticket in their hands. We do not seek nor desire its defeat, and hence we urge the proper conciliation now. This made, and this county is good for at least 5,000 Republican majority next Fall.

POLITICAL NOTES.

HENDRICKS, of Indiana, has the Presidential fever so badly that his friends despair of him.

THERE are already one hundred and sixty candidates for the various offices to be filled in Butler county.

JNO. C. BRECKENRIDGE cannot be Governor of Kentucky. He is indigible, under the Fourteenth amendment.

SENATOR ANTHONY says he finds that the Southern debts are manipulated by natives, and that the State of North Carolina was made next to insolvent by Democrats.

EVIDENTLY the Cincinnati and Indianapolis journals believe that there are only three possible candidates for the Democratic nomination for the next Presidency, and their names are Allen, Thurman and Hendricks.

WE SEE the names of several persons announced as candidates for State Treasurer. They may be good men, but we prefer having the Hon. G. Dawson Coleman nominated.—Pottsville Journal.

THE Jackson Democratic Association has nominated Thurman for President and Bayard for Vice, in 1876. Tilden, Hendricks, Fitz John Porter, and at least a hundred others, will feel badly over this.

THE Hon. Samuel Randall, of Pennsylvania, is evidently unpopular in Maine. The Portland Argus, leading Democratic organ of the State, sets him down hard on a back seat, in this peremptory manner: "Mr. Randall may as well understand, once for all, that a Democratic House will not elect him as Speaker. His record will not stand the test, and the party, we think, will not be so stupid as to commit the grave blunder of electing him. He will not do, and the best thing for him is to subside. The Hon. M. C. Kerr, of Indiana, is a fit man for the place, and Mr. Cox, of New York, would fill it well."

THE following are the Philadelphia delegates to the Republican State Convention: —Senatorial—William S. Douglass, John Welsh, Andrew Knorr, Charles Thomas Jones, William B. Mann, Gen. H. H. It appears that last Summer a young man, in company with a female companion, caught her by the hand and gave her arm a twist. It seemed to strain a muscle of her arm, and a small lump arose just above the wrist, causing her so much pain that it has been under medical treatment ever since. The arm was opened and it was discovered that the lump, which had now much increased in size, had developed into a cancer. Recently the arm had to be amputated to save her life. The young woman is a tailoress, and depended on her industry, and by this painful result is deprived of her trade.

Perceiving this, he threw himself out while yet thirty or forty feet from the ground, and lay unconscious until a boy, who saw him make the leap, came to his assistance. He sustained a few cuts about the face and head, and his lower extremities were severely strained. The balloon contained 14,000 feet of gas.

A PRESIDENT'S RESTING PLACE.

(From the Louisville Courier-Journal, May 6, 1875.)

Yesterday afternoon Vice President Wilson, accompanied by Gen. Ekin, visited the resting place of the old hero and former President of the United States, Gen. Zachary Taylor. As our readers generally know, the mortal remains of this distinguished soldier and civilian repose in the family vault on "the Taylor farm," situated on the Brownsboro road, about five miles from the city. The original tract attached to the old homestead was some years since sub-divided and sold. That portion of it which embraces the family burial ground, about one acre having been reserved in the deed for that sacred purpose, was purchased by George McCurdy, Esq., who now resides in the old mansion, which he has recently had thoroughly renovated and repaired. The farm is highly cultivated, and is one of the most beautiful and charming spots in the vicinity of Louisville.

The burial ground is distant about a quarter of a mile from the mission, and is enclosed by a substantial Kentucky limestone wall, dry built. Within this enclosure the members of the Taylor family, who have died within the three past generations, are dreamlessly sleeping. In the southwestern corner of the lot is the family vault, which is now in a very dilapidated condition. Indeed, the process of decay has gone so far that some of the massive stones are crumbling and falling away. Even the marble slab upon which is inscribed the name of General Taylor, with the dates of his birth and death, is only kept in place by the support of a fence rail which some friendly hand has propped against it. The grounds are overgrown with ivy and weedy, so tangled and matted together that it is difficult to walk through them. Many of the trees seem blighted and lifeless, and the entire enclosure looks extremely desolate and uninviting.

It was to this lonesome and neglected spot the party repaired yesterday. The weather was in keeping with the appearance of the grounds. The sky was clouded, showers of rain fell at intervals, and the air was chilly. But, despite these forbidding features, the kind-hearted Vice President determined, as he had but one day to remain in Louisville, to spend a portion of it at the tomb of one whom he admired and honored when living, and whose memory, now that he is dead, he cherished and revered.

When Mr. Wilson entered the burial ground, his first inquiry was for the vault containing the dust of Gen. Taylor. Through the net-work of briers and ivy, he proceeded directly to it, and there, standing with uncovered head before its rusty iron door and crumbling walls, he seemed for a time to be absorbed in profound meditation, in the course of which, no doubt, the brilliant and glorious career of the now dead hero passed quickly before his mind; for, looking up, the first exclamation of the Vice President was: "How strange and sad that the burial place of one who shed so much lustre upon the military and civic annals of his country should be thus neglected and forgotten!" He then asked Gen. Ekin and Mr. McCurdy various questions concerning the lot and its slumbering occupants, the latter communicating several interesting particulars. The face of the Vice President brightened up when Gen. Ekin told him that the Legislature of Kentucky had already before it the question of erecting a suitable monument over the remains of Gen. Taylor, and that some action upon this subject would probably be taken at its next session. Gen. Wilson then walked through the grounds as best he could, and manifested much interest in the perusal of the inscriptions on the various tombstones that mark the graves of the deceased members of the Taylor family.

Having passed nearly an hour in the old burial ground, the Vice President, warmly thanking Mr. McCurdy for his courteous attentions, resumed his seat in the carriage with Gen. Ekin, and proceeded toward the city. On the way Gen. Wilson stopped at the hospitable residence of his friend, Logan Murray, Esq., on the Heights, where he was hospitably entertained. He returned to the Galt House about sunset, and left last evening for Nashville.

Watering Milk to Get the Cream.

It is well known that milk set in the usual way, although it throws up a goodly percentage of cream, does not yield up all the fat in the milk, because the skimmed milk, on being subjected to analysis, is found to contain a small percentage of butter, notwithstanding it had on being set thrown up the cream very perfectly. Experiments that have been made in adding water to milk to facilitate the rising of the cream have shown that more cream is obtained. Thus a specimen of milk was divided into two portions. One portion was set for cream, and seven hours yielded 7 per cent. of cream. The other portion was mixed with an equal volume of water and the diluted milk set for cream. The diluted milk in seven hours gave 5 per cent. of cream, or 1½ per cent. more cream than it should have yielded if watering made no difference. It may not be advisable, however, to use the water in this way on all occasions for getting up the cream, since water added to milk hastens the acidity of the liquid, which in warm weather should be guarded against.

Latest Advices Concerning Money and Stock Matters.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, May 8, 1875.

The banks were in receipt of a larger amount of funds than usual yesterday, and had a fair demand for discounts. There is a perceptible improvement in banking business within a few days, as well as in general trade. This may be but transient, and yet our conviction is that we shall have a better summer than has been generally thought, for a time past. Our manufacturers are in better spirits, and while we are not authorized to say this, we think that were the hot dollars dispensed with by the puddlers the mills would be run during the coming summer. We believe trade is gradually springing up, and that the demand would permit the mills to run on the present basis. Money continues abundant in the financial centers, but it is not so in the country, except in Iowa, Illinois, and in some parts of the Southwest. Merchants in this city complain a good deal of not being able to collect in the country. Yet in the city collections are moderately easy. In real estate, there is more activity, yet even here prices keep down and transactions are not entirely agreeable to sellers. There are quite many houses still for rent, but these are being slowly taken. In general business there is improvement, and hopefulness for the future.

NEW YORK, May 7, 1875.

Money was easy at 2½a3½; prime mercantile paper 4a5½. Sterling 487½ for sixty day and 490a490½ for sight. The customs receipts were $426,000. The imports of dry goods for the week were $1,605,170. Gold was firm, opening at 115½, advancing to 115⅝, and closing at 115½. The carrying rates were 1a4. Loans were also made flat. The Assistant Treasurer disbursed $340,000. The clearings were $34,000,000. The specie engagements for to-morrow are $1,100,000. Government bonds are strong. Railroad mortgages are firm. State bonds are quiet.

The general tone of the stock market to-day was stronger than for some days past, and indicated an improving tendency. Panama was exceptionally weak. The strongest stocks were New York Central, Erie, Lake Shore and Western Union. United States Express declined 1 per cent. St. Paul common declined early in the day on a report that the parties contesting the election were in favor of buying the Milwaukee & Northern road, which concern is not paying, but this was afterwards denied by Alexander Mitchell, President of the St. Paul, who states that not only was there no truth in the report, but also that the Milwaukee & Northern isleased for ninety-nine years to the Wisconsin Central Company, with the privilege of buying the road. At the close the stock was 36½ a 36¾. St. Paul preferred rose to 56¾.

The Stock Exchange has added to its list the following securities: Three millions Ohio & Mississippi first mortgage seven per cent. bonds, Springfield division; also the common stock of the St. Louis, Kansas City & Northern Railway Company, which amounts to 120,000 shares, par $160, and preferred stock of the same amount.

The annual report of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway shows the earnings and expenses for 1874 as compared with 1873 as follows: 1873—gross earnings, $9,046,123; total expense, $6,594,560; net earnings, $2,451,563. 1874—gross earnings, $8,953,017; total expenses, $5,871,116; net earnings, $3,081,900. The falling off in gross earnings was slight, being $93,106, while there was a decrease in operating expenses of $723,443. The net earnings for 1874 show an increase of $630,337.

The Commercial says the stock market near the close of business was active on Erie stock at 30½a30¾ per cent. The course of the stock continues from London to this market, and the belief gains ground that Gould will control the annual election of directors in July. It is even hinted that he may be able to keep such men as General Barlow and Mr. Duncan, of the present direction, in the Board as his colleagues in the future management of the road. Litigation, it is given out, has already ceased between them.

The transactions on the Stock Exchange aggregated 125,000 shares, of which 9,000 were Pacific Mail, 25,000 Western Union, 11,000 Northwest, 4,000 St. Paul, 24,000 Erie, 12,000 Lake Shore, and 19,000 Union Pacific.

Condition of the Markets at Home and Abroad.

DAILY REPORT OF PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, May 7, 1875.

There is no special change to note in the commercial situation, excepting that there appears to have been a reaction in the grain markets at Chicago, which is important, especially at this particular time. As we have before stated, the feeling begins to prevail that the reports in regard to the wheat and fruit crops have been considerably exaggerated, and the general tone of the market for both Wheat and Flour is easing up somewhat in consequence. As regards the other leading staples there are no new or important features deserving of special notice.

APPLES—The market is well supplied and easier but unchanged; $2@2.50 ℔ bbl for common to fair, and $3@3.50 for prime to choice.

APPLE BUTTER—50@55c ℔ gal.

BEANS—The market is firmer but unchanged. Selling to the trade at $1.80 for mediums, and $1.90 for navies.

BUTTER—Dealers all agreed in reporting the market, even for the very best grades, dull and weak, with the supply accumulating and a stronger disposition to realize. Prime to choice rolls, 28@30c, and do. dairy, 31@32c.

CHEESE—Prime Ohio Goshen, 16½@17c; New York ditto, 17@17½c.

DRIED FRUIT—Peaches steady at 10@10½c for halves; Apples, 7@8c; Blackberries dull at 9½@10c; Elderberries, 6@7c.

EGGS—The market may be quoted steady at 18—some dealers were asking 19, but we heard of no sales above our quotations.

FLOUR—The general tone of the market is easier; we understand that western millers are more disposed to sell than they were a week ago. Spring wheat flours, $6.15@6.25 for Wisconsins; and $6.25@6.35 for Minnesotas; winters, $6.25@6.60 for red, and $6.75@7.00 for amber and white. Rye Flour, $6.00@6.25.

GROCERIES—Trade continues moderately active, and while it is not as good as it was a few weeks ago, it is about all that can be expected. Coffee reported quiet, and if anything, weaker, while Sugars, on the other hand, are strong and advancing. The stock of New Orleans Molasses in this market is comparatively light, and holders are very stiff at quotations, from which it is evident that they are expecting an early advance.

GRAIN—The general tone of the market for Wheat is easier, but with a very limited supply and considerable inquiry, prices are still maintained; we continue to quote at $1.28 to $1.30 for Penna. and Ohio red, and $1.33 to $1.35 for do. amber and white. The Oat market is firm, and with the supply very much reduced and considerable inquiry, prices are advancing: we now quote mixed at 70@71c and white at 72@73—sales reported at the outside figure. Corn is also in light supply and firm with an advancing tendency; quotable at 86@88 for mixed to prime yellow. Rye is unchanged at $1.15.

HAY—Baled is coming in more freely again, but with a steady demand, prices are still maintained; prairie, $16@18; timothy, $20@23, according to quality and condition.

POTATOES—The market appears to be gaining strength, and we advance our quotations slightly. Peach Blows, $1@1.02½ on track and $1.10@1.12½ in a jobbing way from store.

PROVISIONS—Trade continues fairly active, but the market is devoid of any new or important features deserving of notice.

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET—WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, May 7, 1875.

PIG IRON.

The general position of the pig iron trade remains substantially as noted in our last report; business continues dull, the demand is light, being confined to supplying immediate wants, which are very meagre, while prices have undergone no quotable change. The mills generally are pretty well stocked, having bought freely during January and February, when prices were lower than those now prevailing, and they are virtually out of the market for the present, having resolved, apparently, not to replenish until they have exhausted what they have unless there should be a very decided improvement in the product in the meantime. However, the offerings are light, and holders generally of good forge irons are asking an advance; producers realize the situation, that any attempt to push the market could not but have a depressing effect in the present condition of affairs, hence they are acting very discreetly, making little or no effort to sell. Following sales were reported:

CONNELLSVILLE COKE.

110 tons Gray Forge	$24 00	4 mos
90 tons No 1 Foundry	26 00	4 mos

ALLEGHENY COKE.

1,000 tons Gray Forge	$24 00	time

CHARCOAL.

178 tons Nos. 2, 2 and 1 H. R.	$27@32 00	4 mos
20 tons Cold Blast, Eastern	38 00	4 mos
50 tons No. 1 Tennessee	30 00	4 mos
75 tons No. 1 Tennessee	30 00	cash

BITUMINOUS COAL SMELTED FROM L. S. ORE.

120 tons White and Mottled	$22 00	4 mos
100 tons Gray Forge	23 25	cash
50 tons No 1 Foundry	27 00	4 mos
160 tons Gray Forge	24 00	4 mos
200 tons White and Mottled	22 00	4 mos
100 tons Gray Forge	24 00	4 mos

MANUFACTURED IRON.

Trade continues moderately active, the mills, with one or two exceptions, are all in operation, many of them working double turn, but orders are not coming in as freely as it was expected they would, and some of our manufacturers are talking about shutting down early next month, unless there is a very decided improvement in the outlook in the meantime. A Philadelphia circular, under date of the 5th says: "Pittsburgh mills are offering Bars here at very low prices. The mill owners there claim to be able to produce bars at 2c ℔ pound, and delivered in Philadelphia and New York at 2¼c ℔ pound. Coal and labor are had much cheaper there than in the east, which may account for the above fact."

NAILS.

There is a continued active trade in Nails. Our manufacturers are all busy, many of them behind with their orders, but it is claimed that there is no margin for profit at current rates; notwithstanding the factories are all working up to their full capacity, there is no accumulation of stock and the market may be quoted firm at $3, 60 days, with the usual discount of two per cent. for cash.

SCRAP IRON.

Continues dull, but prices have undergone no quotable change during the past week. No. 1 Wrought, $32@33 ℔ ton, delivered free at mills, against $37@38 during the lock-out. Old car wheels nominal at $20@23. There is a fair demand for Scrap Steel, and as the supply is light, prices are fully maintained.

NEW YORK.

The general position of American Pig Iron remains much the same as has been noted for some time past past. There is scarcely any demand, and what few parcels have changed hands have been taken for urgent necessities. The production of American Iron continues limited, but still it appears to be considerably in excess of the wants of consumers, and while holders are not disposed to force the market, still when a buyer is in want of stock he has decidedly all the advantage. While this state of affairs continues quotations are useless, as they are entirely nominal and can nearly always be shaded. We note a sale of 500 tons No. 2 X, North River, and a few other small parcels are reported as having been sold, but as the terms are in all cases kept strictly private it is of little interest to the trade. We repeat quotations of last week, but, as we stated above, they must be considered entirely nominal: Lehigh brands, No. 1 Foundry, $27@28; Foundry No. 2, $25@26; Gray Foage, $23@26.—Iron Age.

PHILADELPHIA.

A circular under date of 5th reports as follows: It is a conceded fact that the Iron business has never been in so demoralized a condition as at the present time. Reports from all sections of the country confirm this. Philadelphia has suffered heavily; several large and well known firms have been driven to the "wall," and compelled to ask an extention from their creditors; while in the case of three other equally large and prominent houses, one failure has been the result of the long continued prostration. Prices for all kinds of manufactured articles are not sufficiently remunerative to pay the interest on the capital invested for their production, and if a producer is able to make a new dollar take the place of a new one, he is doing well. Those producers of pig iron whose furnaces have been continued in blast during the coal strike, have been sadly disappointed in their expectations of higher prices, (because of the scarcity and high price of fuel, and the largely decreased production), and are, instead of gaining the anticipated profit, selling their iron at a loss. Coke is used by almost all the furnaces now in blast, at a cost of over $6 ℔ ton at the "stacks." In consequence of the bad quality of the coal now being used, much inferior iron is being made. From inquiries among the larger producing companies, we find No. 1 Pig to be scarce, and as old orders are being filled, the stock of this grade is being rapidly depleted. First class Gray Forge is scarce and bringing the price of No. 2, extra. The foundries here are all doing something, those having specialities being the most busy. We notice an advance on the price of Pipes, made recently at a meeting of Pipe makers held for that purpose. The advance was a slight one, however. Several of the larger Rolling Mills here are running on full time with a fair compliment of orders. A recent accident, the bursting of a fly-wheel, and consequent damage to building machinery, etc., has caused a stoppage at the mill of the Philadelphia Iron & Steel Company, but it will only be a temporary suspension.

BRITISH IRON MARKET.

A cable telegram to the Iron Age, under date of the 5th, reports as follows:—Scotch Pig.—There is a fair business doing under a steady demand, but prices are weak. The following are makers' quotations:

The Shoe Trade.

A recent letter from Boston estimates the annual business of the shoe and leather interests of that city at two hundred millions of dollars. But Boston is the emporium of an industry that covers many towns, for the boots and shoes are not made in Boston, but in the country. Other commercial cities in America have engaged very largely in the shoe and leather trade, but none of them equal Boston in it, because none of them have a large section of country making shoes for them.

Still a very remarkable progress in the shoe trade is visible in other cities, not only in Philadelphia, New York and Baltimore, but in Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, St. Louis and Chicago. The basis of this is, of course, the labor seeking employment of foreign and native boot and shoe makers, hundreds of whom offer their products to the dealers in such quantities as to render the local product gradually a matter of importance to the trade. But in a large degree the basis is the regularly increasing supply of hides and leather in the markets of the chief cities, which makes it to the interest of the leather trade in those cities to encourage the local production of boots and shoes as well as saddles and harness, in order to make a better local market for their leather. In this business the local industry everywhere competes with the supplies derived from Boston, and if the wholesale trade were not to encourage this industry it would gradually make a market for itself independently. The New England trade, however, is a national one, and covers the whole country. Since the 1st of January the shipments of cases by sea and rail from Boston amount to 444,810, a decrease of about 10,000 cases as compared with the corresponding period last year. In the same period of 1859 the shipments were 284,856 cases, but the trade fell in 1861 to 187,424 cases, in 1862 to 127,017 cases, and by 1864 had recovered 195,062 cases—to 242,543 cases in 1866, to 395,043 cases in 1869, to 453,424 cases in 1872, and for four years the trade has made no progress.—Philadelphia North American.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, May 7, 1875.

Trade in the raw article especially, continues considerably demoralized; immediate shipment was quoted at $1.35@1.40 at Parker, the lowest point it has touched for several months. The feeling begins to prevail, however, that the market has about touched bottom, although buyers, in view of the unexpected course of the market recently, will doubtless operate cautiously for the present, until affairs become more settled. Refined remains substantially as noted in our last report: 10⅞ on spot and 10⅝ for latter part of month, deliverable at Connellsville depot to go to Baltimore.

The Barrel market continues quiet and unchanged; countries $1.10@1.15; city make, $1.30.

New York Wool Market.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Very little that is interesting has occurred in this market since our last report. There have been but few parties on here from the East with a view of purchasing, but this is usual in the period of the week covered by this report. The trade anticipate only a moderate business just at this time however, while we are so closely approaching the season for supplies of new clip from all quarters. There has been noticeable some little desire to close out odds and ends of lots to clear lofts against fresh supplies. This has been the case particularly when the goods have consisted of fine fleeces. Medium fleeces pretty generally are held at firm prices, and the few sales that have occurred have been well up to the basis of late transactions. This description is only available here and there in important lines. Combing and delaine stock also bring full prices, with a moderate assortment. In pulled the recent large transactions have brought the offerings down to a limited amount, but the transactions indicate no improvement in prices, they showing a little irregularity. The new clip from California is now coming forward in marketable quantities, but the operations in them are of a restricted character, buyers, as a rule, watching the effect of the free receipts in the San Francisco market; the few sales that have been made here scarcely vary from the opening rates, but there is a somewhat nominal feeling as regards the market for the moment. Texas wools are being taken in small lots only, most parties awaiting a more liberal assortment; the few parcels disposed of have been at very steady prices. In foreign there is some looking at Australian stock; the bids as a rule do not meet sellers' views, although prices are not held with any especial strength. The general market for foreign wools is somewhat unsettled, there not being much desire to purchase a sufficient amount to fairly develop prices. Manufacturers still complain of an unsatisfactory movement in the goods market, both as regards the volume of trade and prices ruling, and are not inclined in most instances to purchase beyond quantities sufficient to keep machinery moving. Agents from this city and other markets are now in the West for supplies, and some contracts in Ohio are reported of wool on the sheep's back as high as 50 cents. Sales are 5,000 lbs X Ohio Fleeces at 55c; 10,000 lbs X and XX fleeces on private terms; 5,000 lbs fine unwashed fleeces at 27½c; 4,000 lbs medium do. on private terms; 1,500 lbs unwashed Western fleeces on private terms; 5,000 lbs super pulled at 50c; 40 bags country pulled on private terms; 10 bags city superfine on private terms; 20 bags Western Texas on private terms; 2,000 lbs do. at 27c; 2,000 lbs Eastern Texas on private terms; 35 bales Fall California on private terms; 10 bales burry Spring at 27c; 50 bales new Spring California on private terms; 2,000 lbs Maine superfine at 56c; 5,000 lbs scoured superfine at 72½c; 4 bales Australian at 52c.

The Wheat Prospect.

The condition of the growing wheat, or of what ought to be growing, is still a topic of absorbing interest on 'Change, and all over the country. In regard to the California prospects, A. E. Kent writes that there cannot be more than half a crop. E. V. Robbins (a former President of our Board of Trade,) just arrived from that State, says that even it should rain there now it could do no good, except in isolated spots. E. G. Matthew & Co. write that it looks poorly and not over half a crop. And W. T. Coleman & Co. write that the weather of the last week improved the prospects, so that the crop will probably be half or two-thirds of the crop of 1874. The prospects in this cluster of States are also reported poor. A gentleman from Indianapolis reports that all around him the farmers are holding back their wheat and will not part with a bushel of it, so that the mills in that section must be supplied from Chicago or lie idle. Several orders were received here yesterday for carloads of wheat to be shipped to mills in Ohio, which ordinarily grind only winter wheat. It is also reported that the farmers in Iowa and Minnesota are holding back their spring wheat, our receipts being now chiefly of wheat sold during the winter to arrive in May. Here is a condition of strength which is opposed on the other side by almost continuous weakness in Liverpool and New York—that weakness being partially based upon the fact of large stocks in Chicago. So far the situation in regard to prices seems to be an affair of holding on. How much of advantage will be gained by a persistent holding for higher prices can only be determined by the magnitude of the next crop.

One fact is significant in this connection. A cargo of wheat was loaded here yesterday to proceed to Toledo, in addition to the numerous carloads ordered for different points in Ohio and Indiana.—Chicago Tribune.

BOATS ADVERTISED TO LEAVE TO-DAY.
Mollie Ebert, Batchelor, Cincinnati, 4 P. M.
Iron Mountain, Gray, St. Louis, 4 P. M.

THE stage of water last evening was six feet three inches and falling. Weather cloudy and warmer, with indications favorable for rain.

THE towboat I. N. Phillips has arrived.

THE Mallie Ragon, from Wheeling, arrived and departed.

NOTHING has been heard from the Chas. W. Mead since she passed Omaha.

THE R. W. Skillinger is due from Ironton tomorrow, and will return, as usual, on Tuesday at 4 P. M.

THE towboat Traveler has fallen into the hands of the U. S. Marshal, and will be offered for sale by him on the 18th inst.

W. H. BROWN'S barge of coal, sunk by the ice against one of the Newport bridge piers, has been raised, and two thousand bushels of coal recovered.

THE A. J. Baker was to depart for St. Louis early this morning. She will have from here one barge of miscellaneous freight, one of coke and also one of brick.

A PRELIMINARY survey is being made through Stoddard County, (Mo.) for a canal, to connect the Upper St. Francis and Black rivers with the Mississippi.

THE Iron Mountain, Captain Gray, is filling up steadily for St. Louis and the Upper Mississippi, and will take her departure this evening or early in the morning.

THE loss of coal opposite Cscaola, before daylight on Friday last, was five boats and three barges, or about one hundred and forty thousand bushels. Its condition was such that the prospects indicate its total destruction.

THERE is now no longer any guess-work about the steamer Josephine going up the Yellowstone. She has received positive orders to be in readiness to start for a trip up that river on the 15th of the present month, with General Sheridan and his escort.

THE Exchange arrived from Cincinnati early yesterday morning, with an excellent trip. As will be seen by card, she is announced to return on Tuesday next. Captain Sam. Shuman is in command, and Messrs. Harbison and Dales have charge of the office.

MR. FINNEY, assignee for Staib & Co., Pittsburgh, has sold twenty-six coal barges lying at Cincinnati. Nineteen to S. F. Dana, of Cincinnati, and seven to Val. Collins, Covington. The prices range from fifty to six hundred and twenty dollars.

THE John A. Wood left Louisville for New Orleans on Wednesday, with eighteen coal-boats loaded. She has six boilers. She left using three of them, and will use the other three after they are patched up, which will be done as they proceed down the river.

SAYS Friday's Cincinnati Commercial: The John Gilmore, with a miscellaneous tow from Cumberland River to Pittsburgh, passed up at 7:30 A. M. ....The John S. Rhoads, with 550 tons miscellaneous freight from St. Louis to Pittsburgh, arrived at 6:45 P. M.

THE St. Louis Democrat, of Thursday, says:—The Paragon's machinery is on a barge, which the Gilmore will tow to Pittsburgh. Prince Emerson is putting in the new cylinder timbers, and Smith, Beggs & Co. are making the new engines, which will soon be completed.

THE stock of coal at New Orleans is now nearly 4,000,000 bushels, and embraces 176 boats and five barges. The consumption during April was seventeen boats and ten barges, or about 425,000 bushels. The arrivals during April were sixty-five boats and thirteen barges, or 1,500,000 bushels.

A CINCINNATI dispatch says: The John L. Rhoads was obliged to lie over here twenty-four hours for pilots. Marsh Hays and Geo. Hughes were engaged this morning and she leaves at three o'clock for Pittsburgh, with five hundred and fifty tons miscellaneous freight, and load at Pittsburgh for St. Louis.

THE Cincinnati Gazette, of Friday, says: Mr. Finney, assignee for Staib & Co., Pittsburgh, after receiving a large number of bids from various parties in this city and elsewhere, has finally sold twenty-six coal barges, lying here, as follows: Nineteen of the barges were purchased by S. F. Dana, of this city, and seven by Val. P. Collins, of Covington. The prices of these barges ranged from $50 to $620.

THE fine steamer Mollie Ebert, Captain F. Y. Batchelor, will positively take her departure for Cincinnati this P. M. As noted in our last issue, she is giving excursion tickets to Cincinnati and return for twelve dollars, and those intending to visit the Musical Festival in that city, should make a note of this and be governed accordingly. The Ebert's accommodations are first-class, and we can promise passengers on her a very pleasant trip. Captain James W. Batchelor is in charge of the office, a fair guarantee that passengers will receive every proper attention.

ST. LOUIS advices under date of Wednesday report as follows: Business was somewhat more active to-day, and a fair amount of stuff went forward for shipment south. The Henry C. Yaeger, Commonwealth, Belle of Shreveport, and a fleet of barges, are all receiving for New Orleans, and will succeed in getting cargoes by Saturday. Captain James Howard left for Jeffersonville last night. Captain Wm. Hambleston is still here endeavoring to effect a settlement with the officers of the John B. Maude for docking and repairing her. The river is falling briskly. Rates unchanged. It was rumored, yesterday, that Mrs Divan and the two children who lost their lives by the St. Luke disaster, were safely quartered and cared for in St. Charles, but the report was false.

HOME NEWS.

An Eye Removed.

Mr. Thomas Jameson of Petrolia, Butler county, who had an eye removed by Dr. Sadler, at No. 256 Penn avenue, on Wednesday last, goes to his home to-day. He is feeling well, and has been out every day since the operation.

Those Four Men.

H. A. Surdam, G. H. Palmer, and J. H. Thomas, three of the men arrested by Mayor McCarthy's detectives for their suspicious movements in and about banks, were committed to the Workhouse yesterday morning for ninety days. The fourth party, Joseph Riley, was discharged. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Reardon, attorney for the prisoners, made an application to Court for a writ of habeas corpus directing Superintendent Cordier to produce the bodies of Surdam, Thomas and Palmer in Court for a hearing. The writ was granted, and made returnable at ten o'clock this morning.

FOUND AT LAST.

Patrick Slavin in Custody—A Year's Liberty and Eventual Capture.

The murder of John Lynch by Patrick Slavin, a year ago last March, at Elizabeth, on the Monongahela river, is doubtless still remembered, also the manner in which the offender hid for weeks in the coal pits of that section, and the fruitless efforts of the officers to dislodge him. He finally escaped and cleared out for the mining districts of Luzerne county and the counties adjacent thereto. Nothing at all was heard of him until recently, when it was ascertained that he was in the Scranton jail, serving a term of imprisonment for assault and battery. Officer Seth Wilmot, recently of the Mayor's detective force, learning of Slavin's incarceration, found out that he is the man who is wanted here for the murder of Lynch, and yesterday he made an information before Alderman Burke, of the Third ward, charging Slavin with murder. A commitment was sent to Scranton to be lodged against him, and as soon as his term expires there he will be fetched here for trial.

OBITUARY.

Death of H. M. Twining, Esq.

Many of our citizens were grieved to learn yesterday of the death of H. M. Twining, Esq., which occurred at Philadelphia, on Thursday. The deceased was in the seventy-sixth year of his age at the time of his demise. Mr. Twining was well known, and beloved in Pittsburgh. He established "Twining's Academy," this city, in which he and his wife had taught many years, and it was attended by the children from many of our most prominent families. He was a gentleman of fine culture, a thorough classical scholar and a very admirable tutor. His Academy was quite popular, and he was as greatly beloved by his pupils as he was highly esteemed by their parents.

About the year 1869, he removed to Philadelphia and opened a school for young ladies. His worth was there recognized, and he was soon at the head of a flourishing and popular institution, which position he held at the time of his death.

In private life, the deceased was regarded with respect wherever he was known. He was a man of engaging manners and fine social graces, which made him a favorite in the society in which he moved. He had a strong penchant for traveling, and in his earlier years not only visited the prominent cites and points of interest in our own land, but also made several tours to Europe—gathering a stock of information about places and persons which made him an entertaining companion. He was a regular attendant at St. Peter's church while residing here, and maintained his connection with the Episcopal church in Philadelphia. He visited Pittsburgh several times after his removal, his latest visit being a few month since, and always received a warm welcome from his many friends here. He leaves a widow but no children. The news of his death will be received with sorrow by all who have memories of him, whether as patron, pupil, or friend in the social circle.

ALLEGHENY POOR DIRECTORS.

A Lively Meeting Last Night.

A regular monthly meeting of the Allegheny Board of Poor Directors was held last evening.

Mr. D. T. Johnston, steward of the Poor House, submitted his report for the past month. He reported that there were 21 persons admitted to the house during the month, and there were 163 persons in the poor department and 49 inmates in the insane department. Report received.

Mr. R. D. McGonnigle, Secretary, reported that he had paid out $309.25 to the resident poor, and $17.60 to non-resident poor, and $62.92 for other purposes. He had also given orders for 100 bushels coal and 5 pairs of shoes. During that time he had also collected $315.73. Report received.

A communication from Controller Brown, showed that the Board had $577 of a balance still in the Treasury. Received.

A report from Dr. B. B. Smith, physician to the Board, relative to the sick and insane at the Poor House, was received.

Bills to the amount of $4,400 were presented and referred to the Finance Committee, which committee was authorized to borrow $3,000.

After some further matters had been attended to, the point was raised that a clerk in the employ of Mr. Wilson, member of the Board, had, by some means, furnished fifty barrels of flour to the Poor House, and it was asserted that he had charged more than the flour was worth, and it was also of a poor quality. Mr. Wilson admitted that he had sold eight barrels to his clerk, which were sent to the Poor House, but he insisted that he had had no hand in the matter and had made nothing by the transaction.

Quite a lengthy discussion then ensued, during which several members stated that if business of this kind was going to be done, they would not be a party to it, and would resign their position on the board.

Mr. Speer finally moved that Mr. Wilson be censured for his action in the matter, and that hereafter all supplies be purchased by contract. Adopted.

Mr. Neely then charged Mr. Grubbs with using his position on the board to get Elliott & Co. (his employes) the contract for furnishing the trees for the Poor Farm.

Mr. Grubbs denied the assertion, and claimed that he had done nothing but what was right. A very lively discussion then took place, during which Mr. Grubbs told Mr. Neely that he departed from the truth, and for a short time matters were very lively, after which the matter was dropped and the regular order of business taken up.

After some further routine business had been transacted the board adjourned.

INTERESTING THE BANKERS.

Meeting of the Clearing House Association Yesterday Afternoon—The Numismatic Department of the Centennial—Committee Appointed.

There was a meeting of the Clearing House Association of this city yesterday afternoon, at the Bank of Pittsburgh, on Fourth avenue, to hear an address from Col. J. E. Peyton, who desires to interest the bankers of Pittsburgh in the project for the establishment in the Centennial buildings of a department to be devoted exclusively to an exhibition of the coins and paper money of the American Colonies and the United States from the earliest settlement of the country up to the present time. The associated banks of Philadelphia have already taken action in the matter, and adopted a resolution requesting all National and other banks, and all bankers of the United States to send representatives to a meeting to be held in that city about the first of next month, with the object of forming an association for the purpose of collecting, classifying and exhibiting specimens of money, as noted above. It was some time before a quorum was obtained yesterday afternoon and the bankers present, while waiting for others, naturally fell to discussing features of their own business and gradually glided into reminiscences concerning the recent panic, and also those of 1837 and 1857, which were quite interesting, particularly to the younger persons. After a quorum had been secured Col. Peyton stated the object of the meeting, as already referred to, and said that he was on his return from a tour among the western cities, where he met with kind treatment and encouragement and succeeded in securing the appointment of committees to attend the convention next month. He trusted that the bankers of Pittsburgh would take an interest in the matter for he felt assured that, if they attended the Centennial next year, it would be to them a source of especial gratification to visit a department of the nature it is proposed to establish, and which would be not only very entertaining, but instructive, and valuable as a contribution to numismatology.

At the conclusion of Mr. Peyton's remarks Mr. Jno. D. Scully offered the following, which was adopted.

Resolved, That the invitation of the General Committee of Banks and Bankers on Coins and Currency of the Centennial Exposition is hereby accepted, and that we recommend the matter to the attention of the banks and bankers of Western Pennsylvania.

Resolved, That the President of the Clearing House be requested to appoint a committee of seven, of whom the President of this meeting shall be chairman, to carry out the intentions of the above resolution.

In compliance with the last resolution, the following committee was appointed: Mr. John Harper, of the Bank of Pittsburgh; Mr. John H. Shoenberger, of the Exchange Bank; Mr. John D. Scully, of the First National Bank; Mr. W. E. Schmertz, of the Third National Bank; Mr. George A. Berry, of the Citizens' National Bank; Mr. John R. McCune, of the Union National Bank; and Mr. R. H. Hartley, of the M. & M. Bank.

The meeting then adjourned.

Emotion and sensation are the twin agents in the world of religion outside of the church. They are made to do service in producing a semblance of fervor in matters of piety which is mistaken too often for the genuine feelings which have their birth in conviction and real love for God.—Pittsburgh Catholic.

The annual Council of the Elders of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church will meet in the lecture-room of the First Presbyterian Church, of Cleveland, Ohio, on Saturday evening, May 22d, 1875, at 7 o'clock p. m., for the election of officers, and for such other business as may come before the meeting.

One of the most unseemly current discussions is that of Edward Eggleston's "lying around loose" church of the "Christian endeavor." The remarkable vitality of the church is in no way shown so strongly as in the fact that it can exist and even prosper under such injuries by its professed friends.—United Presbyterian.

The crowded churches in this country and Europe to-day, are those in which the old evangelical doctrine concerning original sin, native depravity, the satisfaction of Christ for the sins of the people, regeneration of the Holy Spirit, and repentance and faith, are preached most fully and most plainly.—Presbyterian Banner.

If, on either hand in the relations of this subject concerning the salvation of men, it is proper, or possible, to speak of few, we may assure ourselves that the few will not be Christ's. His will be the many. Not the handfuls of sand, but the sea-shore—not the gleaner's sheaves, but the great harvest of the earth will belong to him.—Pittsburgh Christian Advocate.

It is now ascertained, beyond a doubt, that a majority of all the Presbyteries of the Presbyterian church have answered the overture respecting the Eldership in the affirmative—97 voting in the affirmative and 33 in the negative; but it is not at all likely that it will produce any radical changes. No church is required to adopt the limited term service; permission to do so is simply given. This is a liberty which a number of churches had already taken.

On the 16th of May the Central Union German Catholic Relief Association of the United States will meet in annual convention in Cincinnati, and remain in session four days. This is probably the strongest Catholic benevolent organization in the country. Over sixty flourishing societies, scattered all over the United States, belong to it, and its membership numbers nearly 70,000. Its object is to render aid to necessitous German Catholics, and lend a helping hand to needy emigrants as they arrive on our shores.

The church which holds its new members off at arms' length, or frosts them over with criticism for backwardness, or lack of social grace, thereby chills itself and loses power which is not for winning souls. If you would be fair and true to the stranger, meet him more than half the way when he comes among you, and never be so cruel as to stand apart on your own dignity until that stranger feels at home. He will never feel at home while you wilfully misunderstand the laws of Christian etiquette.—Methodist Recorder.

It would have been better for the cause of religion if the discovery of the following telegram, said to have been sent by Mr. Sankey, had never been made: "Great success; eight souls saved; thirty narmoniums sold.—Exchange. To which the Methodist Recorder replies: "And it would be best for the cause of religion if the anonymous 'It is said' had never been permitted to bear false witness. Mr. Sankey, we assume to say from our personal knowledge of the man, never sent any such message anywhere. It is a fiction. Even if he were engaged in organ selling, but indirectly, he is not such a consummate fool as this irresponsible statement would make him out."

On Thursday evening the anniversary meeting of the Sabbath school, connected with the U. P. church, Allegheny, Rev. J. W. Witherspoon pastor, was held in the school room of the church. The attendance was only limited by the capacity of the place. The exercises were under the general supervision of the Superintendent, Mr. McGinnis. The annual report was read, showing a roll of about 325 pupils with an average attendance of 160. The collections amounted during the year to $220, and fourteen of the scholars had united with the church. After the report there were addresses by the Rev. Dr. W. J. Reid, Rev. W. G. Moorhead and Rev. S. J. Sands. In the intervals, the school and choir, under the lead of Mr. Balph, furnished some excellent music, and the infant class, under the direction of their teacher, Miss Nevin gave an interesting exercise. The room was beautifully decorated with evergreens, and the anniversary was very enjoyable. Mr. J. S. Robinson will been superintendent next year, and the school commences the year with every prospect of continued success.

NO SURRENDER.

Attempt Yesterday Morning to Rob an Express Car on the Fort Wayne Railroad—A Plucky Messenger, Who was Shot Twice, and then Killed the Robber.

A very daring attempt was made early yesterday morning to rob an express car on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago railroad, while on its way to this city, and between Lafayette and Cresline, Ohio. It was not only eminently unsuccessful but resulted in the instant death of the robber, who was shot and killed by the express messenger, Mr. George Price. It seems that some time during the night Hiram C. Binckley, who was until recently a passenger conductor on the Fort Wayne railroad, stationed himself upon the platforms between the baggage and express cars with the intention of robbing the latter, which contained a large sum of money. He effected an entrance by sawing a panel from the door, the noise of the operation being deadened by the rattling of the cars. Getting inside he found Mr. Price alone and seated on a chest half asleep. Binckley presented a revolver and called on the messenger to surrender. The latter started to his feet, and seeing a masked man standing before him in a menacing attitude, he jumped for his weapon which was at the other end of the car, and at the same moment, with commendable presence of mind, pulled the bell rope to stop the train. Binckley, finding that Price was not disposed to submit without a struggle, fired at him and the latter having thrown up his arm the bullet ploughed a furrow through it and also inflicted a wound on the chin. Binckley again fired and this time shot Price in the shoulder, and then jumped behind a sort of cupboard at one side of the car. The messenger having obtained his revolver blazed away at Binckley the moment he looked from behind the screen and shot him in the head, the ball entering at one side of the forehead and killing him instantly. The robber fell dead without uttering a word. By this time the train had stopped and the train men ran to the express car to ascertain the cause of the signal. They found Price bleeding profusely from his wounds, but standing guard over the valuables in his care. The mask which covered the face of the robber was removed, and he was immediately identified as Hiram C. Binckley, of Fort Wayne. He was formerly a freight conductor, running between this city and Fort Wayne, but more recently a passenger conductor between Lima and Crestline. He was only discharged two or three weeks ago. He wore a mask which completely covered his head and neck, two small holes through which to look being cut in it. His body was taken to Crestline, where the Coroner held an inquest yesterday. Being a railroad man Binckley knew that he could have obtained entrance to the express car by knocking on the door, as the messenger would doubtless have thought that some one from the baggage car desired to get in, and it is not known why he didn't adopt that method. It is supposed he had two accomplices, as two men were seen to jump from the train as soon as it slacked up enough to permit that feat to be performed without danger. Binckley had a rope twined around his arm with which it is supposed he intended to tie Price as soon as he surrendered, but it happened that he tackled a man of grit. Express robberies will now doubtless be at a discount on the Fort Wayne road for a awhile.

THE COURT RECORD.

A Complete Report of the Proceedings in the Courts Yesterday.

United States District Court.

(Before Judge McCandless.)

BANKRUPTCY CASES.

Wm. S. Colwill, bankrupt, Allegheny city. The return day of the rule on the assignee, to show cause why he should not sell the bankrupt's real estate, extended to the 10th inst.

Evans, Dallas, Gilmore and others vs. Geo. W. Ebert & Jacob Poe, owners of the steamboat Mollie Ebert. On trial.

CASES TRIED.

In the case of the United States vs. Charles J. Stewart, charged with attempting to forge and pass a postal money order, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. In his address before the jury, United States District Attorney Reed stated that the evidence was not sufficient to convict and asked a verdict accordingly.

A nolle pros. was allowed on a second indictment against the same defendant, in which he was charged with obtaining a letter addressed to another party, by fraud.

DR. LE CLARE'S CASE.

This case having been called yesterday, the counsel for the defendant, Messrs. Marshall, Wier and Gibson, asked for a continuance until the next term for the following reasons:

1. That the defendant was arrested April 30th, indicted May 5th, and confined in prison since.

2. That Mr. Marshall, one of the attorneys, owing to the death of his father-in-law, was unable to give necessary attentions to the case or consult his client.

3. That the attorneys are wholly unprepared for trial without any default or negligence on their part, but on account of the short time between indictment and trial.

4. That R. G. Shepherd and W. T. Litzen material witnesses for defendant, cannot be found, etc.

The continuance was objected to by District Attorney Reed, on the ground that the Government had a number of witnesses on hand to prove the charges made against the defendant. After some discussion, however, the Court granted a continuance.

United States vs. James Porter, charged, with attempting to pass a counterfeit United States bank note. Continued on motion of defendant's counsel.

BILLS OF INDICTMENT RETURNED.

The Grand Jury returned the following true bills yesterday:

United States vs. Albert Kortzky, Augustus Legab and Constine Legab. Charge—making counterfeit United States coin.

United States vs. Florentine Schmerdel. Charge—retailing cigars not properly taxed and stamped from place of manufactory.

THEIR LABORS CONCLUDED.

The Grand Jury concluded their labors yesterday morning, and before being discharged made a presentment to the court in which it was stated that a visit had been made to the Penitentiary for the Western District of Pennsylvania and a report highly complimentary to Warden Wright and the different officials connected with the prison was submitted. The new work shops also received special notice and the general management of the entite institution was commended. The presentment concluded as follows: "It is subject of congratulation to the citizens of Western Pennsylvania that civilization and humanity have entered within the prison grates of the Western Penitentiary."

After receiving the thanks of the court, the Grand Jury was discharged from further duty.

United States Circuit Court.

(Before Judge McKennan.)

Ralston et al. vs. York County Iron Company; suit for infringement of patent process for making steel direct from the ore, was argued again yesterday and continued until the 24th inst.

A continuance was asked in the case of Launsbury who is indicted for the murder of Col. Butler (which has already been fully reported), for the following reasons:

First—That he was arrested on the 29th of March, since which time he has been confined in prison.

Second—That the witnesses material to his defense, are scattered over a wide extent of country, and will take much labor and more time than he has had since his arrest to procure their attendance at this term of court. That he has exercised all the diligence he could to be ready for trial at this term, but has failed to find, by diligent inquiry, through every source open to him, the present place of residence of Wm. Stephens, a witness material to his defense.

Third—That he took out a subpœna shortly after his arrest and, by direction of his counsel, had it served on all his witnesses, but has not been able to secure the said William Stephens for the reason before stated. That he cannot go to trial safely without this witness, and that he believes he resides within the jurisdiction of this Court, and that he can procure his attendance at next term.

Fourth—That there are other important and material witnesses for whom he has a subpœna out, who, he (the said defendant) is informed, has not been and cannot be found and served in time to procure their attendance at the present term.

The Court granted the request, and the trial was postponed until the November term, which will be held in this city.

Lizzie A. Johnson, by her next friend, vs. John T. Johnston; libel in divorce. Subpœna awarded.

Common Pleas Court No. 2.

(Before Judges Kirkpatrick and White.)

This Court was occupied most of the day in hearing the argument in the McGee mandamus case.

The principal point made by plaintiff's counsel was that it is necessary to have the plaintiff sworn in for the purpose of enabling him to take out a writ of quo warranto and prosecute his claim for the office before the Courts. It was also held that Councils had no judical power vested in them to decide on the validity of elections, but were ministerial in their powers and bound to swear anyone into office, who had received the proper certificate of election from the Courts. Col. Bayne, on the other hand, held that Councils had a quasi judicial power, and also that by swearing in the plaintiff they would be virtually stultifying themselves and repudiating their former action in swearing in McCarthy.

Judge White expressed the opinion that it was not necessary for the relator to take the oath of office in order to secure a writ of quo warranto. He also thought if Councils refused to administer the oath to the claimant, that he could go before any Alderman and be sworn in which would answer every purpose.

Judge Kirkpatrick dissented from the views taken by his colleague in regard to the effect of administering an oath, and expressed the opinion that it settles nothing as to the rights of the office.

Judge White said that the ceremony of swearing in a Mayor by Councils is simply an inauguration into office, and in so doing Councils recognize him as Mayor.

At the conclusion of the argument the Court took the papers and reserved its decision.

T. J. Bacon vs. the Germania Savings Bank, is on trial before Judge Kirkpatrick. Plaintiff brings an action for damages alleged to have been caused to his house, adjoining the new Germania Savings Bank, on Wood street, in construction of the latter building.

The case of J. Hart vs. the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, in which the plaintiff claimed one hundred thousand dollars damages for personal injuries received on defendant's road, and which has been on trial several days in this Court was amicably settled yesterday, though the arrangements were strictly private.

The Usual Allegheny Runaway.

This time the horse was checked up in front of R. Taggart's Boot and Shoe store, No. 129 Federal street, Allegheny, and the owner was made happy by the purchase of a pair of shoes for each one of his thirteen children, the whole cost being only sixteen dollars for the baker's dozen. This man saved at least five or six dollars by this transaction. Others may do the same, and no one has ever yet purchased from Taggart that did not feel in his heart that he was saving money and getting a bargain.

Expression.

Not more do faces differ in appearance than do suits of clothing, and a suit with a really genteel expression is a rarity indeed, but James Bleakley, merchant tailor, No. 60 Smithfield street, is acknowledged to be an a No. 1 cutter, fitter, and parties desiring a stylish and fashionable suit of extra good material at a reasonable price, can do no better than to go and see him.

Be Wise To-day.

PIMPLES, ERUPTIONS, ROUGH SKIN.

The system being put under the influence of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for a few weeks, the skin becomes smooth, clear, soft, and velvety, and being illuminated with the glow of perfect health from within, true beauty stands forth in all its glory. The effects of all medicines which operate upon the system through the medium of the blood are necessarily somewhat slow, no matter how good the remedy employed. While one to three bottles clear the skin of pimples, blotches, eruptions, yellow spots, comedones, or "grubs," a dozen may possibly be required to cure some cases where the system is rotten with scrofulous or virulent blood poisons. The cure of all these diseases, however, from the common pimple to the worst scrofula, is, with the use of this most potent agent, only a matter of time. Sold by dealers in medicines.

COVERED WITH ERUPTIONS. CURED.

CLAVERACK, Columbia Co., N. Y.

DR. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.:

Dear Sir:—I am sixty years of age, and have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in the worst form for a great many years, until, accidentally, I saw one of your books, which described my case exactly. I bought your Golden Medical Discovery, and took two bottles and a half, and was entirely cured. From my shoulders to my hands I was entirely covered with eruptions, also on face and body. I was likewise afflicted with Rheumatism, so that I walked with great difficulty, and that is entirely cured. May God spare you a long life to remain a blessing to mankind. With untold gratitude,

MRS. A. W. WILLIAMS.

European Steamship News.

Dispatches received at Max Schamberg's European Steamship, Exchange and Telegraph Office, at 163 Smithfield street, announce that the steamer Quebec ran ashore on the 6th, at the mouth of the Thames river.

Practice versus Theory.

The theory of disease accepted by physicians is, that symptoms are merely sympathetic indications of its existence, and have in most instances little or nothing to do with fixing its locality. Their practice, however, is diametrically opposed to their theory, for they administer medicines which affect symptoms only. The remarkable cures of dyspepsia, sick headache, constipation, rheumatism, general debility, urinary and kidney troubles, and malarial fevers, wrought by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, could never have been accomplished by remedies which addressed themselves merely to the removal of any one of the manifold and complicated symptoms to which those maladies give rise. Acting, as the Bitters do, directly upon the stomach and tributary organs, overcoming their irregularities and endowing them with renewed vigor, they control, as it were, the springs of vitality, purifying and giving them fresh impetus, and dispersing all those harrassing symptoms which proceeded from their misdirection or contamination.

CANCER CAN BE CURED,

All that may be said to the Contrary Notwithstanding.

The following extraordinary cure of a Cancer, which had been pronounced beyond the reach of medicine by the best medical skill of New England, certainly merits the most profound attention of the medical faculty, many of whom are now daily prescribing VEGETINE in New England, where it has already become firmly established, and is recognized by all classes of people to be the only reliable Blood Purifier.

Approved Statement.

CHARLESTOWN, Mass., March 24, 1869.

Mr. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—In the year 1860, while residing at Portland, Me., I was afflicted with a Cancer on my nose, which made rapid progress. All of the best physicians there were consulted, without any benefit. For a period of six years it continued to increase and extend, until it was invading my whole system. I suffered the most excruciating pains, until my nose was nearly gone, and I found it was approaching a fatal termination. Being burnt out of house and home by the great fire of 1866, I moved here, when I was entreated to try the Indian Blood Remedy, VEGETINE, and, suffering greatly, without hope or confidence in relief by any medicine, I finally consented to try it; and, only those who have a similar suffering can realize my feelings, when after two months' trial, I found the open sore commencing to heal. Gaining confidence that the disease was being successfully combated by the VEGETINE (for I took no other medicine), I faithfully continued its use, and in six months the cancer was healed and my health fully restored.

I am confident if I had used VEGETINE in the early stages of the disease, it would have arrested its progress and saved years of great suffering. I desire simply that others may be benefited and attention called to its usefulness; and, in the interest of suffering humanity, I cheerfully add my testimonial to its entire success in my case; and, though I have lost nearly all of my nose, my face is entirely healed and I enjoy good health. My husband joins with me in approving this statement.

MRS. JOHN PATTERSON,
39 Everett street.

Fully concurring in the above,
JOHN PATTERSON.

The above statement is from one who was a great sufferer for many years, trying many physicians and many remedies, and not finding relief until trying this remedy—the VEGETINE. Does it not conclusively show the searching, cleansing, purifying and healing qualities of the VEGETINE? Have you any doubt about trying the VEGETINE for diseases of the blood? If you have, reference can be given to over five hundred who have voluntarily given testimony of its cures.

All Diseases of the Blood.

If VEGETINE will relieve pain, cleanse, purify and cure such diseases, restoring the patient to perfect health after trying different physicians, many remedies, suffering for years, is it not conclusive proof, if you are a sufferer, you can be cured? Why is this medicine performing such great cures? It works on the blood, in the circulating fluid. It can truly be called the Great Blood Purifier. The great source of disease originates in the blood; and no medicine that does not act directly upon it, to purify and renovate, has any just claim upon public attention.

Seventy-one Years of Age.

EAST MARSHFIELD, Aug. 22, 1870.

MR. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—I am seventy-one years of age; have suffered many years with Kidney Complaint, weakness in my back and stomach. I was induced by friends to try your VEGETINE, and I think it the best medicine for weakness of the kidneys I ever used. I have tried many remedies for this complaint, and never found so much relief as from the VEGETINE. It strengthens and invigorates the whole system. Many of my acquaintances have taken it, and I believe it to be good for all the complaints for which it is recommended.

Yours truly,
JOSIAH H. SHERMAN.

Recommend it Heartily.

SOUTH BOSTON, Feb. 7, 1870.

MR. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—I have taken several bottles of your VEGETINE, and am convinced it is a valuable remedy for Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaint, and general debility of the system.

I can heartily recommend it to all suffering from the above complaints. Yours respectfully,

MRS. MONROE PARKER,
386 Athens street.
